WELCOME to the November edition of Teme Triangle.

It is exactly a year since I sat in the editor's chair and it is right that my first paragraph goes to thanking Jerry Johns, Helen Griffiee and the rest of the TT team for keeping your magazine bubbling with news and events over the past twelve months whilst we have been on our gap year. I hope you have enjoyed the variety and that we shall be able to continue the 'guest editor' calendar in 2015.

Now with the clocks changing the seasons march on with an action packed month ahead. The joy of a farming community is that we are always aware of the season – so many urban dwellers miss their passing completely.

So with Harvest Festival just behind us and ploughing for the new year under way, our front cover story features appropriately, Mill Farm Shop.

HANDING OVER THE BATON AT MILL FARM SHOP

For the past 17 years Anton and Liz Sparey have tirelessly overseen not only the traditional farm shop, but also the growth of a charming cluster of outlets on the site. And as from November 5th they are delighted to be handing over the reins to Ellie Fitch who will be opening Ellie's Deli as well as continuing with the traditional Farm Shop.

"It's time for a change" said Liz, "and Ellie is local and has plenty of experience and enthusiasm to take the shop to a new level". "We would like to thank all our customers for their wonderful support over the years and ask them to bear with us in the period of transition".

The shop will be closed for refurbishment from Monday 27th October until Tuesday 4th November. From November 5th Ellie's Deli will be open Tuesday to Friday 9 – 6pm., Saturday 9 – 5pm and Sunday 9 – 1pm.

Please note Ellie's Deli will be closed on Mondays.

All orders will continue as before as will Swift's bread and Sunday papers. We will bring you more about Ellie's Deli and all the traders at Mill Farm in our December/January edition.

STIR UP SUNDAY – FIGGY PUDDING ANYONE?

On the subject of food, and with Christmas approaching, our thoughts turn to Stir up Sunday, always the last Sunday before the season of Advent and this year falling on Sunday November 23rd. It is one of the essential British Christmas traditions and, is said to have been introduced to the Victorians, by Prince Albert, husband of Queen Victoria. A recent survey revealed that two thirds of British children surveyed had never experienced the making of a pudding so perhaps we should give it a boost?

At Hillside Farm they are already practising...our picture shows Felicity Hopkinson and two years old Raffaella getting into the swing. Of course if you can't find the time Pat Van Zyl from Country Markets makes wonderful Christmas puddings to order and you can find her at the Teme Valley Market in Knightwick. The next market will be on Sunday 9th November.

ABBERLEY HILLS VINEYARD

Our third 'foodie' story features Peter and Julia Van Tongeren from Mill Orchards in Great Witley, who, after picking the grapes last year, can officially launch their new "Abberley Hills Vineyard Marley Red" wine of 2013. Made using a blend of three red varieties, Rondo, Regent and Pinot Noir, it has a smooth taste and at 11.5% abv is not too strong! Julia and Peter would be interested to know what you think. They will also have their full range of apples, pears and juices at the market.

MICHAELMAS FAIR AND CONCERT

The Friends of St. Kenelm's are holding a Coffee Morning and Fair in the Church on Saturday 22nd November from 10.30am till 12 o'clock. As well as the usual Cakes and "White elephants", Crafts and Christmas items will be on sale. Come and have coffee and a chat and maybe pick up some early gifts as well.

FESTIVE CHRISTMAS CONCERT at St Kenelm's at 7.30pm on Friday 12th December when the Little Witley Community Choir will be singing.

Candy Connelly will once again be presenting a variety of musical treats. There will also be items from St Kenelm's Choir and the ever-popular Hand Bell ringers.

Tickets to include mulled wine, soft drinks and mince pies will be £5 for adults and £3 for children. Enquiries to Beth Whittenbury 01886 812464

EVENING OF LIGHT

Abberley Hall School Monday 8th December 6pm. An evening of carols, lanterns and festive merriment. All welcome.

More information from 01299 896101.

REMEMBRANCE SUNDAY

This year with the 100th anniversary of World War 1 our services will be especially poignant as we remember parishoners who died.

Shelsley Beauchamp, Clifton and Lower Sapey all have services at 10.45am., on Sunday 9th, there is no service at Shelsley Walsh.

Please note that on Tuesday 11th November 11am Remembrance ceremony in Clifton will, this year, be held on the LARGER village green outside the School and Nursery School

PUB QUIZ AT THE LION

Monday 10th November starting at 8pm. This month's quiz is raising funds for Clifton Friendship Club. Please support the quiz in order to help the club raise funds for outings etc.

CHRISTMAS FAYRE

Sunday, 7th December in Clifton upon Teme Village Hall.

10.00am - 3pm free entry

Various stalls including craft, art and produce including:

- Door rings and Christmas trees
- Christmas and other cakes
- Handmade cards
- Pottery
- Jewellery
- Fudge
- 'Forever Living' products
- Artist
- Fair trade handmade items from Nepal

There will be a raffle and a chance of winning a Sue Field Christmas cake by guessing the weight of the cake. We will also have a seating area for tea, coffee and cake. And Clifton Brownies will sing Christmas carols too.

The Fayre is in aid of the Rachael Bramhall Foundation which supports Macmillan and Lymphoma.

Rachael Bramhall was a young local girl who sadly passed away at the age of 27 after a two year battle with cancer. She was very courageous and dealt with her situation with dignity. She was beautiful, strong and never lost her sense of humour throughout it all. She married her husband Richard Bramhall in Clifton Church a month before she died.

FIREWORKS NIGHT

We have plenty of well-organised bonfires in the area again this year but if you are contemplating an event at home do please bear in mind the effect that they can have, not only on pets but on the farm animals that graze in our parishes. This month's Teme Valley Wildlife article has plenty of hints on looking after our habitats in winter too.

Church Matters

with Pippa Balch

Maybe you have a difficult situation to face, a sorrow or the loss of a loved one - maybe a beloved pet, or something you're thankful for. But, it could be just half an hour of quiet to yourself after a busy day.

The Book of Common Prayer and The Holy Bible have wonderful passages to help us humans through every situation. In the Prayer Book there is a Collect said towards the end of Evening Prayer which begins "lighten our darkness we beseech thee O Lord" (beseech means `we pray`) and continues by asking the Lord for his protection for the night (or for any time).

We don't live in a war-torn country these days though a few centuries ago the Civil War did rage in our parishes and around our very own churches. Today, there can be few people of any age who don't have a worry or two, who long for peace of mind and to feel re-assured. Well, lighting a candle and watching its gentle radiance perhaps with a little prayer shared with our loving Father may just help you, it may lighten the darkness of your life.

Every 3rd Wednesday of the month at St Kenelm's Church in Clifton, from 7.30.p.m. to 8 p.m., Time-Out is held, with some gentle music, a reading and candles to light if you wish. If you can't make Time-Out, then leave us a note on the Altar to the right of the big door in Church and we will light a candle for you. Or pass a message to one of us.

Welcome to ALL and God bless you, "for it is God who commanded light to shine out of darkness", 2 Corinthians ch. 4 v.6

Advance notice of Carol Services: Sunday 21st. December:

Lower Sapey 3.30 pm

Shelsley Beauchamp 5.30 pm

Clifton 6.30 pm

SHELSLEYS' CHURCHWARDEN - APRIL 2015

Brian Elvins, the current Churchwarden for the Shelsleys', has indicated that he would like to retire from this role next year. We are therefore looking for individuals interested in taking on this role from next April, perhaps just on a part time basis, as the job could easily be shared. Interested? Then read on.....

Churchwardens have an important and highly regarded role in the life of the community of the village.

They are responsible for the day-to-day functioning of their parish, supported by members of the PCC (parochial church council). This entails the smooth running of the two churches so that services, weddings, funerals and all its worship activities can be conducted in a proper manner. This includes such things as heating, lighting and seating, together with all other facilities that may be required for the particular service. Wardens are also custodians of the church plate and ornaments.

There are currently two services a month at each of the two churches in the Shelsleys, All Saints' at Shelsley Beauchamp and St Andrew's at ShelsleyWalsh.

The Warden has overall responsibility for the maintenance of the church buildings, although these responsibilities should be delegated to the Fabric Committee, or Standing Committee as appropriate.

Wardens serve for a fixed term, usually twelve months, but generally serve for three years.

Although Churchwardens are the main contacts for church matters, they do not work alone. Their role is to ensure that certain duties are carried out, but not to carry out all the duties themselves.

If you are interested in finding out more, or think you may be able to help in any way, please contact a member of the Shelsleys PCC, or Liz Edwards the secretary at cliftonrectory@wwrt.org.uk

LOWER SAPEY NEWS WITH MARGARET GRIFFITHS

Firstly, the Harpley Big Breakfast, now in it's second year and hopefully, to be an annual event if the organisers still have the stamina ! Liz Younge is a phenomenal organiser, who took months in her meticulous sourcing of food, cooks and helpers, to achieve the Harpley Big Breakfast on September 20th. Liz and husband Steve, provided their splendid marquee against the doubtful weather forecast. In actual fact, the rain did stay away and a wonderful time was had by the many hungry guests.

LIZ'S REPORT

Well done and thank you everyone ! What a very enjoyable fundraising full English we had on September 20th at St. Bartholomew's Church.

The fantastic team of chefs and tea-makers served up over eight-five breakfasts, which with a raffle and a few hand donations, raised just under £500 for the upkeep of our beloved Church and it's grounds. The barbies and camping stoves were out, the pews re-arranged to make a scene fit for for any banquet and the atmosphere was warm and friendly. What a wonderful way to get together on an Autumnal Saturday morning. Liz Younge

As a hungry breakfast diner, I can only add my praise and thanks to Liz and her helpers. I think many diners also enjoyed looking at the First World War exhibition in our Church, dedicated to the local residents who lost their lives in the conflict. This has been popular with all who visited the Church and thanks are due again to John and Mo Padfield and Marion West who arranged it, doing all the research. This will stay in place until Remembrance Sunday, November 9th, so if you haven't yet seen it, it is well worth a visit.

Can I include another 'Thank you', this time on behalf of Mark and myself, to all those who helped to make our recent Golden Wedding celebrations so enjoyable.

I read the Teme Valley Wildlife report and we had our own siting of the elusive weasel. This one was brought into our lounge by our cat and it immediately ran off under the TV table. Being so thin and narrow, it took us ages to get it out and send it off into the garden, but what a smell it left behind! Surely, it must be related to the skunk! She caught another one soon after, but it died. We have also seen a stoat playing in the garden, tossing leaves, turning and spinning in the air for at least an hour. A previous cat caught moles, but this year, with no cat, they have played havoc with the lawn. According to our Mole Catcher, this is because there is a shortage of worms because of the dry summer; the moles having to travel farther in their search for food.

By the way, I am sure you know that 'Pop goes the Weasel', means a visit to the pawnbrokers!

ROTA FOR LOWER SAPEY

Flowers in St Bartholomew's in November will be looked after by Angie Dallow for the first two weeks and then by Barbara Raybould for the final 2 weeks. Cleaning will be undertaken by Jane Dallow, who we hope won't trip over this time! Take care Jane.

The Ladies Bible Group is meeting on Tuesday 11th November at 2pm at Margaret Griffiths.

The Mobile Library visits us on Friday 7th and 28th November. This is a service we are lucky to retain.

COULD YOU BE A CHRISTMAS HOST?

HOST is looking for friendly, hospitable people of all ages whose imaginations are caught by the idea of welcoming an international student at university here, far from his or her own family, to their home, for a day, a weekend or at Christmas. You don't need to live near a university, as students will travel for the privilege of meeting you, learning about real life in this country, and sharing their own culture. HOST is a voluntary activity which makes ambassadors for international goodwill of us all. Please see www.hostuk.org or call local organiser Lynette Chappin 02920 693903. Thank you

TABLE TOP SALE – STOP PRESS

Clifton Upon Teme Early Years Centre are holding a sale of Children's Clothes on Saturday 15th November at the Nursery, between 11am and 1pm, to raise money to update their resources and outdoor environment.

The Nursery would be grateful for any donations of nearly new or good quality children's clothes. They will also be holding a raffle, a Christmas themed Tombola, a cake stall, a candle stall and also selling Christmas decorations and willow wreaths handmade by the children. TEME VALLEY WILDLIFE

Remember, Remember, the fifth of November, gunpowder, treason and plot!

Gathering fallen wood is an autumn task, but burning it hasn't a lot of wildlife benefit. Wildlife commentators give us good reason to be untidy! They suggest that we make a log-pile and let the tree debris slowly return to the soil. If you haven't the space for that, you could just place the logs around the tree from which it has fallen, to allow the beasties to get back up into their original home. Plenty of insects can live in decaying wood and it acts as a refuge for small mammals, birds and amphibians. Lots of fungi grow on dead-wood, indeed their very job is to return plant waste to useful soil humus.

A general tidy-up in the garden is also popular at this time of year. Don't be too vigorous though, because leaving seed-heads and stiff plant stems not only makes a fabulous display if we are fortunate enough to have a hoar frost, but also gives food and shelter to birds, insects and mammals. That bonfire hedgehog, having been saved from incineration, needs somewhere to hibernate for the winter!

Teasels are useful plants that have large seed-heads that will attract winter-hungry birds such as goldfinches. To see these colourful birds performing acrobatics on the teasels is a truly enchanting sight. But having enjoyed this, and then suffered the fate of 100 million (more or less!) teasel plants coming up the following year I would not wholeheartedly recommend this plant for the garden. I have attracted goldfinches to the seedheads of the Rudbeckia "Goldsturm" which is a far less thuggish self-seeder. Other plants which are useful, as refuges for insects and spiders, are those with nooks and hollows, such as the Jerusalem sage and bears' breeches. Sedums are also good because things can hide amongst the dried flat-topped flower-heads.

Areas of longer grass can act as shelter and as part of a wildlife corridor. Household gardens are a very important wildlife potential home, but linking gardens together with strips of rough grass or hedgerows allows wildlife to move about and access a larger area of space. If your garden is securely fenced, that homeless hedgehog cannot get in, let alone out, so leave him a little gap as a welcome.

The next meeting of the Teme Valley Wildlife Group is on Thursday November 13th when we welcome Will Watson talking on the ecology of the River Teme. The meeting is at Rochford Village Hall at 7:30pm and as always it is just £2 on the door where everybody is most welcome.

For up-to-date information on what wildlife is being seen in the area, or to give us your sightings, visit us at www.temevalleywildlife.com. The group normally holds a meeting on the second Thursday of the month. All are very welcome. Tel. 01584 781500 or email dannyarnold@waterwide.com

AUTUMNAL CRIME PREVENTION ADVICE

Unfortunately we have to say goodbye to the summer and with nights drawing in it is time to reassess home security. Ensuring your home appears to be occupied is a great deterrent against burglary. With evenings becoming darker earlier consider taking simple measures to make your home look occupied in the early evening before you arrive home from work. Timer switches for lamps and radios can make a house appear occupied.

Have you considered asking a trusted neighbour to park their car outside your home or on your drive if you are away? Favours such as this can be returned, all helping to make properties appear occupied and making you and your neighbours less vulnerable.

Crimes could have been avoided if basic crime prevention methods are taken, such as:

- Not leaving valuables in vehicles, whether on view or hidden away
- Locking doors and windows when you go out, go to bed, or are in a different part of the house
- Storing valuable tools and equipment in a secure outbuilding

Don't forget to call 101 (police non-emergency number) if you see anybody behaving in a suspicious manner and always if possible make a note of vehicle registration numbers and colour.

THE SHELSLEYS' GARDENING CLUB:

On Wed November 5th our speaker is Roger Umpleby who returns to give a talk entitled "A year on Bredon". Doubtless many of you know Bredon Hill and it will be fascinating to learn what goes on there in plant and insect life through the year.

Future Programmes:

3 December 2014: Our speaker is Brian Draper who will entertain and instruct us with a new talk on local natural history.

7 January 2015: This month we welcome back Stan Lampard who will give another illustrated talk on his travels to far-away places.

4 February 2015: The wonderful and practical Hilary Twigg will instruct us on planting up pots and containers with flowers and vegetables.

DOG FOULING CLIFTON UPON TEME

At the recent Parish Council meeting the subject of dog fouling was raised yet again by a parishioner.

On this occasion the badly affected area is Pound Lane between Pound Meadow and Hill Farm entrance.

Can all dog walkers please show respect for their neighbourhood and CLEAR UP AFTER THEIR DOGS!

J Dale Clerk

ST RICHARD'S HOSPICE LIGHTS OF LOVE

The annual Lights of Love is a special occasion when local people of all faiths come together to remember, reflect and celebrate the lives of those they love who are no longer with us.

They are holding five Lights of Love events throughout November and December. They all follow a simple structure with readings, music, and time for quiet reflection. These community gatherings – where people are united by their shared experience of missing someone dear – bring great comfort and support, through lighting a candle and taking time to reflect.

The evening event at Worcester Cathedral on Friday, 14th November is particularly special. There will be a performance by the Royal Grammar School choir and it concludes with an procession to nearby St Andrew's Spire for a ceremony around the Christmas tree, where the lights will illuminate loved ones' names. Afterwards, there are refreshments and time to meet, mingle and share memories. There will also be a new service at Pershore Abbey on Thursday, 27th November at 2.30pm.

Services take place at: Worcester Cathedral, Friday 14th Nov 3pm and 7pm
Sacred Heart Church, Droitwich, Tues 25th Nov 6pm,
Pershore Abbey, Thurs 27th Nov 2.30pm
Malvern Priory, Tues 2nd Dec 6pm

To dedicate a light please call the Fundraising Team on 01905 763963.

Sponsors George Crump & Son. Thanks also to Worcester Cathedral, Worcester News, Leigh Sinton Farm and Nurseries and other local businesses for their continued support.

AND FINALLY....

As some of you will know we have been away for a year, travelling. Whilst we have no intention of boring you with our adventure we thought you might be interested to see a photo of the Albanian approach to building without planning permission! Appeals are allowed of course.....after the demolition! (see photo on inside back cover).

That's it for this month, thank you for all your contributions and don't forget that next time it's a double edition, so articles for January need to be in by November 14th too. And of course in December we shall be bringing you all that's Christmassy in our parishes.
